

Continued from Page One.

Rev. J. W. Austin, at his home, "Nan-jemoy," on next Tuesday evening from 8:30 to 11.

Miss Julia Carter, daughter of Representative and Mrs. Charles Carter, of West Leno street, has entirely recovered from her recent illness.

Mr. George E. Fleming has sold his lot in Chevy Chase to Mr. and Mrs. William E. Yocum.

Miss Keane, who has been the house guest of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Walsh, of Newlands street, has returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Marlow are having plans drawn for the new house they propose building at Chevy Chase circle within a short time.

Mrs. E. L. Winford spent a few days the past week with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Langdon Whitford, of Newlands street.

Clarence E. Sax expects to build a new house at once on the lot he has just purchased from Mr. Wallace Allen.

Mrs. Titian W. Johnson, of Newlands street, who has been visiting in New York City, has returned to her home.

Miss William H. Santelmann and Mrs. Santelmann, of Connecticut avenue, gave a surprise party at their home the past week to their daughter, Miss Clara Santelmann, in honor of her twentieth birthday.

The invited guests were Miss Sue Ballentine, Miss Margaret Wright, Miss Ethel Brodie, Miss Katherine Corbett, Miss Juliana Glover, and the Misses Harriet, Helen, and Clara Santelmann, and Mr. Howard Alkers, Mr. Fred Klinge, Mr. Henderson Hill, Mr. Lee Brown, James Carter, Mr. John McLean, and Mr. James Larner.

There was a special meeting of the Board of the Aid Society held the past week in the choir room of All Saints' Episcopal Church to arrange for a reception which is to be given to the bishop.

One of the prettiest weddings this season was that of Miss Alva Biddle Jones, daughter of Mrs. H. S. Jones and Mr. Henry Bernard Myers, who were married the past week at All Saints' Episcopal Church by Canon J. W. Austin. Miss Verda Jones, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Lucille Jones and Miss Mary McLaughlin were bridesmaids. Mr. Clyde Garrett was best man and the ushers were Mr. Eugene Bond, Mr. Charles McCollin, Mr. Albert Williams, and Mr. George E. Fleming.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, after which the couple left for a wedding trip in the North. Upon their return they will be at home at the Redwood, after December 1.

Mrs. H. S. Jones has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss E. Verda Jones, to Mr. Clyde D. Garrett. The wedding will take place in November.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Dunn, Jr., have closed their home in East Bradley lane, and have opened their home in Sixteenth street for the winter.

Miss Marie Durant, of East Bradley lane, who has been visiting in Virginia, has returned to her home.

Miss Leavell and Miss Helene Leavell, of East Bradley lane, who have been spending some time in the South, have returned to their home.

Mrs. John L. Bileway, of East Meirone street, entertained her card club at her home the last week.

Mrs. Henry Raymond Glazier, of West Bradley lane, left the past week with her young son for a two months' visit to her mother in Franklin, La.

Mrs. M. O. Woodward and baby, and her two sisters from London, England, have leased the Glassie house in West Bradley lane for the winter.

Mrs. D. Street, of Roland Park, Baltimore, Md., spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. George Langdon Whitford, of Newlands street.

Mrs. G. Thomas Dunlop, of North Chevy Chase, has been brought to her home, "The Haxos," from the hospital, and is convalescing from her recent operation.

Dr. and Mrs. F. J. Ramage, who have been spending some time as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Shoenmaker, of Gratton street, have returned to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. William O'Connell have sold their home in Brookville road to Mr. James A. Kellner.

Miss Lave Birch, of Ashburn, Va., who has been the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Bileway, of Delaware street, has returned to her home.

The Rev. Robert Cunnard and Mrs. Cunnard, of Virginia, who have been

RETURNS FOR THE SOCIAL SEASON.

MISS LUCINDA CARPENTER PENNEBAKER.

Attractive debutante of two seasons ago, who spent the summer and early autumn at Virginia resorts.

Visiting the former's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Giovannioli, have returned to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Schull, of Raymond street, have returned to their home after spending some time at Springfield, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. William O'Connell have leased the Williams farm in Brookville road, and have taken possession of same.

Miss Edna Hazard, of Cambridge lane, entertained at a tea the past week in honor of Miss Dwyer, of Philadelphia, who is the house guest of Miss Margaret Law.

Among those invited to meet her guest were Miss Edna Latham, Miss Mabel Latham, Miss Margaret Law, Miss Florida Booth, Miss Herbert Weaver, Miss Evelyn Mahonin, and Miss Cleveland.

There will be a special installation service at All Saints' Episcopal Church today, as provided by the prayer book to institute Canon J. W. Austin as rector of this parish. The bishop will have charge of the service and there will be holy communion.

The regular monthly meeting of the Chevy Chase Association was held the past week at the Chevy Chase library, this being the annual meeting for the election of officers. Refreshments were served. Those who were elected were as follows: Charles F. Parker, president; Walter E. Stephens, vice president; Thomas E. Robinson, secretary; Clifton Richards, financial secretary, and Edward M. Mox, treasurer. There were also six trustees elected. Dr. James Dudley Morgan, Robert Preston Shepley, Dr. A. H. O'Connell, Vernon E. Hodges, and W. T. S. Curtis.

The first fall meeting of the Chevy Chase branch of the Florence Crittenton circle was held the past week at the home of the president, Mrs. Eugene E. Stevens. Among those present were Mrs. Louise Johnson, Mrs. Edward M. Mox, Mrs. Clarence E. Dawson, Miss Marion Young, Mrs. W. T. Hollison, Mrs.

Mrs. Cobb, formerly of Georgetown, while on her way from Cape Henry, where she spent the summer, in New York, visited to pay a visit to her daughter, Mrs. A. G. Lewis, of Twenty-eighth street.

Georgetown lost another of its youngest set by the marriage of Miss Mae Carr, who, as Mrs. McLean, will make her home in Bloomfield, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Houghton have closed their summer cottage and returned to their home in N street for the winter. Later in the season Mrs. Houghton will pay a short visit to her son, Dr. Horatio Wilson Houghton, who is the commanding officer in the Marine Hospital Service at Providence, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. McKnight, of Alabama, have taken a house at Glen Echo for the coming winter.

A most enjoyable surprise party was given Mr. Waldo Hibbs, of Dunbarton avenue, on the occasion of his birthday last week. It was an old-fashioned party, and between the games of the evening each guest came forward and presented a gift to Mr. Hibbs. These gifts were numerous and comprised principally of take-offs on Mr. Hibbs' personal characteristics, much to the enjoyment of the guests present. Among the guests were Mrs. N. H. Hall, Mrs. P. F. Harrington, Judge Callan, the Misses Callan, and Mr. Louis Wilson.

The Epworth League, of Dunbarton Avenue Church, gave a social last Tuesday evening to its officers. On October 27 the officers will hold a reception for all the members and their friends.

Mrs. Margaret Harvey left Thursday morning for a visit to Portsmouth, N. H. A private dance was given last Friday at the Dunbarton Club by Miss Nannie McClelland.

The regular alternate Tuesday night dances given by the members of Dunbarton Club will begin the first Tuesday in November. Later in the season, if these dances are sufficiently popular, they will be held every Tuesday.

Mrs. Cissel, of Thirty-first street, has as her house guest her aunt, Mrs. H. C. Noyes, of Indianapolis, Ind.

Miss Nettie Craig spent the week-end at Washington Grove.

Mrs. Middleton, of Thirtieth street, has as her guests Mrs. Samuel McClelland, of North Route, Neb., and Mrs. Harriet M. Bewley, of Chicago.

Mrs. Irene Brewer is visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. Dreslin, of Roanoke. Mrs. Brewer will probably return the latter part of the week.

Announcement is made of the coming marriage of Miss Faltz Stock and Mr. Ralph Daakam, to take place on October 30 at the Washington Heights Presbyterian Church.

Miss Ada Saunders, formerly of Georgetown, has returned from Atlantic City and her address this winter will be 122 N street northwest.

Members of the West Street Presbyterian Church will be pleased to learn that Miss Mary Sherry will again be a member of their choir.

CLEVELAND PARK.

Mr. Walter H. Evans returned to his home last week from a two months' trip through the West.

A silver tea was held at the St. Alban's rectory on Saturday afternoon by the choir guild.

Miss Elizabeth Chase, daughter of Commander Chase, U. S. N., is the house guest of Miss Lucy Henry for a week, until her mother and sister return to the city. They will be located at "Seven Oaks" for the winter.

Mrs. A. T. Gray returned on Friday to her home in Wisconsin avenue from a week's visit in Atlantic City.

Miss Carrie London left the early part of the week for North Carolina, where she will remain until the holidays.

LAUREL.

Mrs. Jack Rittenhouse, Mr. and Mrs. Bradley, and Mr. Ransom, of Baltimore, attended the races Wednesday and visited friends in Laurel.

Miss Flora Fleming, of New York, is the guest of the Misses Hopkins, of Snowden Hall.

Mrs. Mary Fehreine has returned from a visit to friends in Baltimore.

Mrs. Wright has as her guest at "Almwick," Mrs. Robert Clinton, of Fairmont, W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Hagby, of Virginia, were the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Sutter, for the week-end, at "Ingle-side."

Miss Elizabeth Gilbert has returned from a visit to her brother, Mr. Lee Gilbert, of New York.

Miss Hooff, of Alexandria, Va., is the guest of her brother, Mr. Charles Hooff, at Oakland.

The annual parish meeting of St. Philip's parish was held in the chapel last Thursday evening and was very successful.

Miss Josephine Crommiller has returned from a visit to Baltimore.

Mrs. John W. Williams visited in Baltimore during the week.

Mr. Lee Bell and Miss Cora Bowie, of Collington, were the guests during the week of Mrs. Charles Stanley.

Mrs. Alice Carey Duval has returned to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Scott, for the winter, after spending the summer with relatives in Virginia.

Miss Eva Kelly, who has been visiting Mrs. John Williams, has returned to her home in Baltimore.

Miss Frances Williams left this week for Philadelphia, where she will spend the winter at the training school for missionaries.

HYATTSVILLE.

Prof. Thomas H. Spence, vice president of the Maryland Agricultural College, will return today after a visit of several weeks on the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

Miss Elizabeth Mullin, of Washington, and Mr. Herbert H. Smith, of Berkeley, will be married Wednesday morning, October 25, at St. Patrick's Church, Washington. They will be at home after November 11 at Berkeley.

Miss Mary Lenora Spence, sister of Vice President Thomas H. Spence, of the Maryland Agricultural College, and Mr. William Robert Bullock will be married Thursday evening, October 26, at Arlington, Washington. The wedding will be a quiet affair, and a wedding reception will be held in the parlors of the Arlington.

Mrs. M. D. Humes, of Washington, is visiting Mrs. William B. Claggett, at "Naxos."

Miss Minnie Chew, of Upper Marlboro, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. O. B. Zantinger.

Mrs. Weidie Duckett is the guest of Mrs. T. Van Claggett and Miss Ellie Sasser, at their home, "Kingston," near Hyattsville.

Miss Amelia Deal, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. A. T. Brooke, left Tuesday for her home in Norfolk, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dennis and son, Vernon, of Georgetown, have been visiting Mrs. Dennis' sister, Mrs. Olive Brown, near Hyattsville.

The "Bird Club" met at "Woodland," the home of Mrs. Beverly Sasser, Thursday afternoon. Following the games, refreshments were served. Those present were: Mrs. Sasser, Mrs. A. Claggett, Mrs. H. H. Smith, L. A. Griffith, Richard S. Hill, Fred Sasser, A. Marshall Marbury, E. L. Bruum, the Misses Minnie Chase, May and Maggie Hill, Edith Hill, and Misses M. C. Coats, and Mrs. C. C. Wilson, Nora and Elizabeth Hill, Mary Somers, Randolph, and Grace Norton.

Miss Alice Jones, of Seabrook, has been visiting relatives in Annapolis during the current week.

Mrs. Mary Schilling, of Washington, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Riggles, near Seabrook.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Langston, of Richmond, Va., have returned after a pleasant stay with friends and relatives near Mount Rainier.

ALEXANDRIA.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey Montague, of Richmond, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Boodle during the week.

Miss Mildred Foster will leave on Monday for Westmoreland County, where she will be a bridesmaid in the Jones-Welford wedding on Wednesday, October 18.

Mrs. John W. Burke and Miss Fannie Burke have returned from Seminary Hill, where they spent the summer as the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Slaughter.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wattle have returned from Berryville, where they attended the wedding of Mrs. Wattle's sister, Miss Nannie Fontaine, to Dr. Frederick H. Gordon Hatchell, on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at "Elmington."

Miss Angela Shriver, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. John Marshall Jones, in Cameron street, has returned to her home in Union Mills, Md.

Mrs. C. C. Coats, of Cincinnati, Ohio, is the guest of Mrs. J. Sidney Douglas in Cameron street.

Mr. Gustave Riley Thompson, of New York, was the guest of relatives in Del Ray during the week.

Miss Mae Greene is the guest of Mrs. Samuel Thompson in Waynesboro, Va.

Miss Margaret Lyons and Miss Olive Lyons have returned from a visit to Mrs. Julian Hall, near Hall's, Md.

Miss Minnie Kilpstein and Miss Mary Ellen Harriman have returned from a visit to relatives in Westcott, Md.

Miss Halahan, of Lancaster, Pa., is the guest of Mrs. Clara Leadbeater in North Washington street.

Miss Lila Waller Barrett will be sponsor from the Eighth district to the con-

National Style Show October 23, 24, 25, 1911. Raucher's Ball Room, Conn. Ave. and L St. Exhibition of Exclusive Fall Garments. Fashion Sensations on Live Models. Exhibition Open 2 to 6-7 to 9. Tea and Punch Served FREE. Afternoon and Evening. Raucher's Incomparable Service. Special Features.

W. F. Frederick Piano Co.

We Have Moved

Unfortunately, there were numerous pianos scratched in moving them, and these we are ready to sell off at cut rates during the coming week. Among them are uprights of well-known makes—a couple of Knabes, a Hardman, a Weber, and others, and they are priced as low as $150 to $250.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT—A complete VICTOR DEPARTMENT, stocked with the newest designs of VICTOR-VICTROLAS and a full catalogue of VICTOR RECORDS—all fresh, new goods—where they may be heard under quiet and comfortable conditions.

W. F. Frederick Piano Co.

D. G. PFEIFFER,
Vice Pres.-Manager

1212 G Street

OUR NEW HOME. The FREDERICK BUILDING, 1212 G Street, is the Center of Piano Row, as it is intended it shall be the Center of things musical at the National Capital.

A handsome five-story building, containing various salons for the display of Knabe, Hardman, Ludwig, Frederick, and others of the World's Best Pianos; also the wonderful Autotone, the Knabe Player-piano, the Heyser and the Princeton Players, and a large department devoted to the VICTOR-VICTROLAS and VICTOR RECORDS.

At Sloan's Art Galleries,
1407 G Street,
Near U. S. Treasury.

ESTATE SALE

OF

Artistic Household Garnitures
From Several Prominent Estates, a Naval Officer, the Security Storage Co., a Prominent Local Family, and Others

Embracing in part magnificent pieces in the Sheraton, Colonial, Chippendale, and Hepplewhite styles. All-gilt Screens, Center Tables, Mirrors, &c., in the Louis periods; valuable Persian Carpets and Rugs, Antique Paintings, Sheffield Plate, Bric-a-brac, Brasses, Austrian and Chelsea China, Bronzes, Marbles, Fire Sets and Andirons, English and French Colored Prints, &c.

ALL TO BE SOLD AT ABSOLUTE PUBLIC AUCTION
AT SLOAN'S GALLERIES, 1407 G ST., WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY, AND FRIDAY, OCTOBER 18, 19, AND 20, AT 11 A. M. AND 3 P. M. EACH DAY.

ON VIEW MONDAY AND TUESDAY, OCTOBER 16 AND 17, 1911.

Catalogues on application to
C. G. SLOAN & CO. (Inc.), Auctioneers,
1407 G Street.

ANACOSTIA.

The Men's Social Club of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, Anacostia, has been the following officers were chosen to serve the coming year: J. C. Winter, president; Franklin S. Gicker, vice president; Ralph W. Friebe, secretary; George Frazier, treasurer. The club will hold its meetings on the second and fourth Thursdays in each month.

If the act authorizing the issuance of universal transfers in the District of Columbia is not passed in the near future, it is probable a campaign will be started by the members of the Citizens' Association, in Anacostia, to compel the railway companies to issue reciprocal transfers at Eighth and G streets south-east to patrons of the two lines at that point.

Miss Louise Coomes, of Bel Alton, Md., is the guest of the Misses Waltham at their residence in U street.

Mrs. J. K. Davidson and daughter, Miss S. A. Davidson, and Mrs. W. R. Davidson, of Sterling, Va., are in Atlantic City for a short stay.

Clara Potts, of Waynesboro, Pa., formerly Miss Ruth Alford, of Anacostia, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Alford, at their residence in W street.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Sowerbutta, who were recently married at Riverside, Md., have returned from their wedding trip and will reside at 1309 Avalon terrace.

The flag exercises scheduled to be held at Millbright, the home of the Episcopal Home for Children, on September 30, were necessarily postponed, but announcement is made by John A. Logan Post, of Anacostia, having the matter in charge, that they will be held on Washington's Birthday of next year.

Yesterday the new track that has been laid to Congress Heights from Anacostia was used for the first time. The old track is to be torn up and new rails laid. The work will probably be completed by the middle of November.

The special meeting of the Epworth League of the Anacostia Methodist Episcopal Church, to be held to-night in that edifice, will be in charge of Simon Bube.

EXCURSIONS.

Famous 40-mile Trip to Indian Head

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1911.

Steamer Macalester leaves Seventh Street Wharf at 2:30 p. m. sharp; home again 6:00 p. m. Excellent Cafe and Buffet Service.

A Special feature of this trip will be music by the Schroeder Orchestra.

FARE, Round Trip, 25 CENTS

NORFOLK & WASHINGTON STEAMBOAT COMPANY

MODERN STEEL PALACE STEAMERS

EVERY DAY IN THE YEAR

TO

Old Point Comfort and Norfolk

Leave foot of 7th st. daily, 6:45 p. m. Through tickets on sale to all points South, with stop-over at Old Point Comfort and Norfolk.

NEW YORK AND BOSTON BY SEA

City ticket office, Bond Building, 14th st. and New York ave. n.w.

KENSINGTON

Care from 10th and N. E. ave. every quarter hour for Cherry Chase. Connect with Kensington Line.

On Sunday next, missionary day will be observed, and Miss Pearl Zirkle will be in charge.

Word has been received at the Government Hospital for the Insane of the death of George W. Downing, at the home of his son, in Brynawton, Charles County, Md.

Read "The Prodigal Judge."

A. KLEIN

Ladies' Tailor
and Importer

Several Years with Pasternak

My customers never have to apologize for their appearance. They invariably enjoy that satisfying feeling of being well and properly attired. At my shop you have five points in your favor—quality, style, fit, finish, and the price. And as you know, I am making a specialty of Ladies' High-class Tailored Suits for $35.00.

You need only to select the cloth and I will attend to the rest. Every piece of cloth, including the materials, linings, as well as the fit, style, and the workmanship, is guaranteed by me, or your money back. I extend you a cordial invitation to call and examine my $35.00 Suit, ready for your inspection.

1316 FIFTEENTH STREET N. W.